POLICY

General

This Statement of Policy and Procedure provides guidance to all employees on policies for records protection, retention, and destruction in order to:

- Maintain confidentiality of information
- Ensure compliance with laws and regulations
- Minimize litigation and settlement costs in the event of a lawsuit
- Ensure records which can be disposed of are destroyed in a regular planned manner

Records shall be retained for the retention periods specified below.

Records shall be stored securely and access limited to those with a valid business reason for requiring access. Staff without a valid business interest should not be opening or reviewing a record.

Records beyond the retention period will be disposed in manner that ensures no breach of confidentiality. The CAO, each Director and each Manager will review in December of each year the records under their control and ensure that out of date documents are destroyed. Destruction will occur in conjunction with the Director of Finance & Administration. The destruction will be recorded and copy of that record using this policy document will be retained by the Director of Finance & Administration.
